

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICHAEL RANDO, a/k/a Mike Singles, individually and as an officer of Prosperity
Training Technology LLC, Elite Customer
Services, LLC, Digital Business Scaling
LLC, First Coast Matchmakers Inc., First Coast Matchmakers LLC, and Financial
Consulting Management Group LLC, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. _____

PLAINTIFF'S EX PARTE MOTION TO FILE A USB DRIVE CONTAINING VIDEO FILES

Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") moves ex parte for an order permitting the FTC to submit to the Court a USB drive containing video and other electronic evidence in support of its Ex Parte Motion For Temporary Restraining Order With Asset Freeze, Immediate Access To Documents And Premises, And Appointment Of A Receiver With Order To Show Cause Why The Court Should Not Issue A Preliminary Injunction ("TRO Motion").

The USB drive includes videos from Defendants' YouTube channel through which Defendants marketed their deceptive credit repair scheme to consumers, Excel spreadsheets not easily convertible to a pdf format, and other YouTube channel videos featuring Defendants' former employees discussing Defendants' deceptive practices. The submitted evidence is highly relevant and material and will assist the Court in evaluating the TRO Motion. The FTC thus respectfully requests the Court's permission to file the USB drive containing the aforementioned exhibits conventionally with the Clerk of Court, so that it is part of the Court's record and docketed as part of the FTC's ex parte TRO Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: 5/2/2022
